

Form: Probation Lesson Observation.

The google.doc can be found at: Whole School / Operations / Policy & Procedures / Forms & Templates / Human Resources / Form: Probation Lesson Observation

Teacher: Miss Olivia Austin	Subject: QCE English.	Class: 12.
Observer: Lana	Position: QCE HOD + Ministry	Date: 23.2.26.

Criteria	S	U	Comments
Classroom Management
Rules and routines.
Pace of lesson
Use of discipline techniques
Clarity of directions
Classroom groupings / seating plan
Classroom environment
Interpersonal Relationships
Communicates effectively with students	S		clear instructions and supportive tone
Develops positive relationships with students	S		Positive rapport with students
Recognises, responds to individual differences	S		Moves around tables to support specific groups responds to their effort and adds to the complexity of the discussion
Encourages positive student behaviour	S
Teacher enthusiasm	S
Curriculum Development
Knowledge of subject matter
Learning experiences selected
Lesson design: Introduction
Lesson design: Clarification
Lesson design: Input
Lesson design: Practice
Lesson design: Review
Structure & order of lesson

Teaching & Learning
Plans purposeful lessons to achieve specific learning outcomes	S		Appropriate writing skill development by engaging with the text.
Matches content, teaching approaches & student development and learning in planning	S
Designs teaching experiences to motivate and engage students	S		combination of group and whole-class discussion -
Structures learning tasks effectively	S		logical sequencing of tasks. Pace could be quickened so students engage more deeply in the text.
Demonstrates flexibility and responsiveness	S		Supporting students who were absent.
Establishes clear, challenging & achievable expectations	S		Tasks become more complex. Are there challenges / differentiated tasks for specific students?
Fosters independent & cooperative learning	S		seating arranged in table groups to promote dialogue.
Engages students actively in developing knowledge	S		Use of open-ended questioning to promote deeper understanding

OVERALL IMPRESSIONS/SUGGESTIONS:

There is a genuine relationship established in the classroom which is enhancing dialogue between students. Consider how these discussions could be more differentiated.

Verbal feedback and a copy of this document was given to the teacher on 24 / 2 / 20
Signed Teacher:	Signed Observer:	Date:

